

Policy:	Leave Policy
Revised Date:	6-Jan-26
Supersedes:	All previous policies and/or statements
Reviewed & Approved By:	Mr. Shanmuganathan – GM (HR) & Mr. Sellamuthu - CHRO

Background:

The “Policy on Leave Management” benefits both the Organization and its employees. The policy on leave management specifies rules for various aspects like entitlement, granting of leave and encashment, etc. Leave policy provides a common understanding between the employer and employee that how leave can be taken while in service.

This policy is framed in order to introduce an employee friendly and easy to administer “Policy on Leave Management” with effect from January 1, 2022 before it has been followed as per the “Standing order”. This policy has been reviewed and amendment is effect from April 1, 2026. This supersedes all procedures followed currently in Leave Management system.

Applicability:

This “Policy on Leave Management” is applicable to all employees of ABT Limited.

Objectives:

Leave management is managing employee time-off requests in a fair and efficient way.

- To provide an efficient and effective “Leave Management System”
- To support employees to balance between work & personal life
- To ensure continuous workflows in the departments
- To track the leave history of all employees and to facilitate timesheet and payroll management

Leave Management System:

- Sanctioning of leave is at Management discretion based on exigencies of business or seriousness of the case.
- Leave year is from 1st January to 31st December (Calendar year).
- The different types of leaves given under the policy are:
 - Statutory/Benefits Leave
 - Earned Leave (EL)
 - Maternity Leave (ML)
 - Paternity Leave (PL)
 - Special / Non-Accrual Leave
 - Compensatory Off (CF)
 - Loss Of Pay (LOP)
 - Permission
- This policy specifies the entitlement of different types of leave for all employees, leave carry forward, leave encashment & loss of pay (LOP).
- The Employees shall apply for leave through online/standard template in advance allowing the reporting superior / HOD's to plan manpower required for functioning.
- Employees are advised to proceed on leave only after obtaining necessary approval from their reporting officer except "Exigency Situations".
- "Exigency Situation" includes situations like where the individual is sick, someone who is in immediate family (blood relation) is unwell or for attending any untoward incident.

General Rules:

- Intervening National holidays will NOT be counted as part of the leave.
- Leave forms/emails must be submitted to the concerned HR before availing any leave. In case of an emergency, the leave form must be submitted to HR with approval from the reporting manager on the day the employee resumes work; failing which, the leave will be treated as Leave Without Pay (LOP).

Earned Leave (EL)

These are paid leaves that are earned over time based on the number of days worked.

Entitlement:

- The confirmed employee of the company is eligible for 36 days of Earned Leave in a calendar year, on a pro rata basis.
- The Management Trainees/Probationers are eligible to avail 1.5 days of Earned Leave every month and the same will be calculated on pro-rata basis. Any unavailed leaves during this period may be carried forward once the employee is confirmed.
- Contractual employees engaged post-retirement shall be entitled to one (1) day of leave per month. Unavailed leave may be accumulated, carried forward, and availed cumulatively, subject to organizational requirements. Upon completion of the contract tenure, any unavailed leave shall lapse.
- Employees must mandatorily avail at least 50% of their Earned Leave entitlement during the calendar year. The remaining 50% may be accumulated and carried forward to the following year.

(Example: Out of 36 days of Earned Leave, 18 days must be availed during the year; any unavailed portion of these 18 days will lapse. The remaining 18 days may be carried forward to the next year.)

- Earned Leave can be accumulated up to a maximum of 120 days. Once the leave balance exceeds 120 days, the excess days will be encashed as per company policy. Employees will not be allowed to carry forward more than 120 days at any time.

General Rules:

- Leave forms has to be submitted through ESS portal to the concerned HR at least before a day availing any leaves. In-case of any emergency the leave form has to be submitted on the resuming day itself or else it will be marked absent and will be considered as LOP.
- Approved leave application should reach HR department within one working day of rejoining.

- If an employee avails Earned Leave (EL) on medical grounds for more than five (5) consecutive days, they must submit a fitness/medical certificate to HR. In case of prolonged illness, the company may request periodic medical updates.
- Employees shall be eligible for a weekly off provided they have worked for at least three (3) days during the week. Alternatively, one (1) day of Compensatory Off (CF) and two (2) working days may be considered for eligibility for a weekly off.

MATERNITY LEAVE (ML)

- This benefit is applicable to female employees who have completed a minimum of 12 months of continuous service from their Date of Joining (DOJ) prior to the expected date of delivery.
- Female employees are eligible for 26 weeks of paid maternity leave for childbirth. Those covered under ESI will receive the benefit as per ESI rules.
- An employee shall be entitled to maternity leave of up to eight weeks immediately preceding the expected date of childbirth and eighteen weeks immediately following the actual date of childbirth. The timing of maternity leave may be adjusted based on individual requirements; however, the total maternity leave shall not exceed 26 weeks. Pre-maternity leave may be availed only in case of medical necessity, supported by a medical certificate issued by a registered gynecologist.
- Female Employee shall notify the Company in writing and produce a medical certificate confirming the pregnancy and detailing the expected date of birth and the date on which maternity leave is to commence, such notification shall be provided to company not less than 8 weeks in advance before the commencement of maternity leave.
- Intervening National / declared / festival / weekly off days will be counted as part of maternity leave.
- If, because of any complication, leave has to be extended, it can be done but will fall under Loss of Pay, available earned leaves cannot be adjusted.
- However married women employees having more than 2 surviving children are not eligible for Maternity Leave.

PATERNITY LEAVE (PL)

- All married male employees shall be entitled to up to two (2) weeks (14 calendar days) of Paternity Leave per eligible event, to be availed immediately following childbirth or miscarriage, subject to submission of the relevant supporting certificate. Of this, 5 working days shall be granted as special leave by the company and will not be deducted from the employee's leave balance, while the remaining nine (9) days shall be adjusted against the employee's eligible leave. This benefit may be availed a maximum of two times during the employee's tenure with the company. (After completion of probation)

COMPENSATORY OFF (COFF) Marriage leave by company – 5 days (after completion of probation)

- If an employee is required to work on any important assignment on a Declared/weekly off day, he/she is eligible for Compensatory off on any other working day.
- Prior approval is required from the department head / management to work on such National/Festival/Declared/weekly off days. No compensatory offs will be entertained when worked on these days without proper prior approval.
- The compensatory off has to be availed within a period of 90 days from the date worked.
- Compensatory off when not availed within the stipulated time period will lapse.
- Only two days of compensatory offs can be combined and availed at a stretch.
- This is applicable up to Deputy Manager cadre.

LOSS OF PAY (LOP)

- LOP can be applied by an employee when no other leave is available.
- During the period of LOP, the employee is not entitled for any pay or allowance.
- A maximum of 3 months of LOP can be availed on the approval of the HOD's & HR. (Exceptional cases like Medical reasons etc.)
- If an employee fails to report to duty on the specified date following the approved Loss of Pay (LOP) period, it shall be deemed that the employee has voluntarily abandoned their employment. Such absence will result in initiation of the termination process.
- LOP days will not be taken for EL eligibility.

PERMISSION AND LEAVE

- Employees are allowed to avail permission either at the beginning or interim or at the closure of the shift.
- Maximum of 2 permission is allowed in a month for an employee. The duration of the permission may be availed for maximum of two hours.
- If any employee is late or leaving early for more than 2 times, it will be considered as half a day leave. Any further number of late comings or early leaving also will be adjusted in a similar manner in that month.

PROCEDURE FOR APPLYING LEAVE:

The available leave balance is to be checked by the employee with the HR department and the leave to be applied by duly filling up the leave application form on ESS portal. The departmental head is authorized to either grant or disapprove the leave on valid grounds.

EXTENSION OF LEAVE:

As it is necessary to get prior approval for leave so it is also for extension of leave. The employee has to apply to his/her immediate superior/department head for extension of leave well in advance and get it sanctioned to avail them. In case an employee overstays, the unsanctioned leave availed will be treated as LOP, if there is no information to HOD by phone or mail.

CANCELLATION OF LEAVE:

The department head can cancel the sanctioned leave on situational / need basis. If an employee proceeds to avail the cancelled leave then those days will be treated as LOP resulting to disciplinary action.

ABSENCE FROM DUTY:

- When an employee takes off from duty without prior leave approval or proper intimation, then the day/those days will be treated as absence from duty.

ABSENCE FROM DUTY:

- When an employee takes off from duty without prior leave approval or proper intimation, then the day/those days will be treated as absence from duty.
- The days of absence will be treated under Loss of Pay.
- The employee has to report to his / her immediate superior/department head on rejoining duty from absence and provide valid reasons for being absent in writing before taking up work again with an intimation/approval to HR.
- If an employee is absent from duty continuously for more than 15 days without any intimation (including any National / Festival / Declared / weekly off days which may fall in-between) will be consider as abscond.
- An official notice (1st warning) will be sent to the employee's available address by the HR department on the 4th day of absence. 2nd warning letter will be issued on the 11th day of his/her absence, 3rd warning letter will be issue on 18th day of his/her absence. In spite of issuing all these 3 warning letter if the employee remains negligence he/she will be issued a show cause notice followed by suitable disciplinary action.
